-----X-----

STATE OF NEW YORK)
) ss.:
COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

ABBAS A. SHAH, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am an individual respondent and reside in New York, New York.
2. At all times relevant to this proceeding, I was a principal of (i) respondent

Linuxor Asset Management, LLC, Delaware limited liability company ("LAM"), which is registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC") as a registered commodity pool operator and was a member of the National Futures Association ("NFA"); and (ii) respondent Linuxor Capital Management, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("LCM"), registered as a commodity trading adviser with the CFTC. Hereinafter, Abbas Shah, LAM and LCM shall be collectively referred to as "Respondents."

3. I respectfully submit this affidavit in support of Respondents' motion to dismiss the claims in this proceeding as barred by, inter alia, Rule ¶ 6035 of the NFA Code of Arbitration (the "Code").

4. I am fully familiar with the facts of this proceeding and of each Statement of Claim filed by claimants McCarthey Investments LLC, JFM Holdings, L.P., and 2001 Jane F. McCarthey GRAT NO. 5 (collectively "Claimants") against Respondents.

5. Except as otherwise stated to be on information and/or belief, I make this affidavit based on personal knowledge.

6. At all times relevant, LAM was the general partner and commodity pool operator of Linuxor Global Macro Fund, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (the "Fund"), and LCM was the commodity trading adviser to the Fund.

7. Claimants were each limited partners of the Fund.

8. Claimants' financial adviser was Mr. Todd Brashear ("Mr. Brashear"). I reported the Fund's performance and other material information directly to Mr. Brashear. I also communicated often with Mr. Philip McCarthey ("Mr. McCarthey"), who was also authorized to act on behalf of Claimants.

9. I traded the Fund's portfolio from early 2002 through the beginning of July 2004. During this time, generally on a weekly basis, I had frequent communications with Mr. McCarthey and Mr. Brashear about the Fund's profits and losses. Claimants, Mr. McCarthey and Mr. Brashear were perfectly aware on a current basis of the status of Claimants' investments in the Fund.

10. Without addressing the lack of merit in Claimants' claims, Claimants were fully aware of the volatility and risks of investing in the Fund, which suffered losses in the first year of trading, due exclusively to market conditions. If necessary, we will ultimately address these issues at a hearing. For now, I will limit this affidavit to the points relevant to Respondent's Motion to Dismiss Claimants' claims.

11. In August 2002, I notified Mr. McCarthey and Mr. Brashear that the Fund had recently suffered losses of approximately $3,500,000, or 32%. In or about late August 2002, I had a conference call with them to discuss these losses and my plan for trying to recover them. On that phone call, with every right to terminate their investment, Claimants elected to continue in the Fund, notwithstanding their actual knowledge of the Fund's formidable losses and of the continued high risk of continuing as investors in the Fund.

12. Claimants' falsely claim that they did not receive their 2002 K-1 Schedules until September 2003. While Respondents argue that the period of limitations for Claimants' claims began at least as far back as August 2002, as described in paragraph 11 above, the date of Claimants' receipt of the K-1 Schedules is critical because it signifies the latest possible date upon which Claimants may plausibly allege ignorance as to the trading losses incurred in their Fund accounts. It also marks the last possible date that the relevant statute of limitations began to run, because at this point Claimants indisputably knew or should have known of the facts giving rise to their purported claims.

13. As indicated by covering letters dated August 12, 2003, I believe that the Fund's auditors, Rothstein Kass & Co, P.C. ("Rothstein Kass"), mailed to each Claimant its 2002 Form K-1 Schedule. Copies of the covering letters and Forms K-1 are attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "K-1 Forms"). Such K-1 Forms disclosed that as of December 31, 2002, Claimants lost a significant part of their investment capital.

14. In addition, on August 25, 2003, I faxed each Claimant's K-1 Form to Mr. Brashear and confirmed that fact in an email sent that day to Mr. Brashear, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B. In the email, I apologized for the delay and discussed certain details of the information reflected in the K-1 Forms. I also instructed Mr. Brashear to check his fax machine for the hard copy of the K-1 Forms that were previously sent that day.

15. On August 25, 2003, in a phone conference that I had with Mr. Brashear, he confirmed his receipt of the K-1 Forms.

16. Consequently, Claimants' allegations that they received the K-1 Forms in September 2003 are simply false. They had the K-1 Forms which included all of the relevant 2002 trading losses no later than August 25, 2003, more than two years before their initiation of this proceeding on October 25, 2005.

17. Thus, all claims arising more than two years before the initiation of this arbitration are barred under the Code.

18. Furthermore, assuming, as Respondents argue, that the Code bars Claimants' claims for the period from the date of their investment in the Fund through August 31, 2003, Claimants still have no viable claim for damages for the period September 1, 2003 through their date of redemption in early July 2004 because the value of their accounts actually increased from $3,657,962 to $4,002,899 during that time, as reflected in account statements attached hereto as Exhibit C.¹

19. In sum, all of Claimants' claims must be dismissed.

¹ Exhibit C contains (i) a report prepared by the Fund's administrator showing the aggregate value of Claimants' accounts to be $3,657,962 as of August 31, 2003 and (ii) the relevant pages of the Fund's July 2004 bank account statement at Chase Bank showing payments to Claimants of $1,740,391.00, $1,740,391.00 and $522,117.00; totaling $4,002,899.00.

WHEREFORE, Respondents respectfully request that their Motion to Dismiss be granted, with prejudice.

Abbas A. Shah

Sworn to before me this 22nd day of December, 2005.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR TRADE OR BUSINESS

Attached is a copy of Schedule K-1, Form 1065 which lists your distributive share of the Partnership's taxable income (loss) for the year ended December 31, 2002. These amounts are to be reported on your 2002 Income Tax Returns.

In connection with the information included on the attached copy of Federal Schedule K-1, please note the following:

Trade or Business

The Partnership has taken the position that it is engaged in the active conduct of a business as a trader in securities. The trading operation is not passive income and is not portfolio income for purposes of the passive activity loss rules (Temp. Reg. Section 1.469-1T(e)(6); Section 1.469-2T(c)(3)(ii)(D)).

Each partner must individually determine whether or not he or she materially participated during the year in the operations of the Partnership, since this affects the presentation and placement of interest expense on your tax return. The Schedule K-1 has been prepared on the basis of a partner who does not materially participate in the operations of the Partnership. Limited partners generally do not materially participate in the trading activities of the Partnership. Accordingly, interest expense reported on line 14a should be reported by an "Individual" taxpayer on Form 4952 line 1 – investment interest expense. Any deductible interest expense should be entered on Schedule E, Part II, column (i). For purposes of determining the investment interest expense limitation, the amounts shown on lines 1 and 7 will affect the computation of investment income.

A partner that materially participates in the trading operation of the Partnership, or a partner that is a "C" corporation, should combine the net ordinary income (loss) reported on line 1 with the interest expense reported on line 14a.

Trader Net Long-Term Capital Gain (Loss)

The supporting schedule for line 7 includes your share of net long-term capital gain (loss). The amount of qualified 5-year gain, if any, included in the net long-term capital gain (loss) is separately stated. Qualified 5-year gain is subject to a special reduced 8% tax rate for individuals reporting a net long-term capital gain. The reduced tax rate of 8% is available only to the extent that the qualified 5-year gain falls within the 15% tax bracket.

Dividends Eligible for Dividend – Received – Deduction (DRD)

The qualifying dividends represent the amount of dividends from less than 20% owned domestic corporations eligible for the dividends received deduction under IRC Section 243(a). The balance of dividends is not eligible for the dividends received deduction.

Unrelated Business Taxable Income (Loss)

If you are a tax-exempt entity and you have gross income from an unrelated trade or business of $1,000 or more, you must file Form 990-T. The law is not entirely clear as to the proper way to determine income (loss) that is attributable to the use of leverage ("debt-financed income"). We have computed UBTI based on our interpretation of the law. Our computation of UBTI has been reflected on line 25 of Schedule K-1.

Guaranteed Payments

Guaranteed payments do not constitute passive income. Guaranteed payments that represent interest on capital constitute investment income for purposes of the investment interest expense limitation.

State & Local Tax Information

If you are required to file a state income tax return, your share of interest income from obligations issued by the U.S. Government or its agencies and your share of expenses to carry such obligations are reported on line 25 of Schedule K-1.

THESE INSTRUCTIONS INVOLVE COMPLEX INCOME TAX MATTERS WHICH OFTEN AFFECT TAXPAYERS DIFFERENTLY DEPENDING UPON THEIR OWN PARTICULAR FACTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES. THEREFORE, YOU SHOULD CONSIDER CONSULTING WITH A PROFESSIONAL TAX ADVISER IF YOU ARE UNCERTAIN ABOUT THE TREATMENT OF ANY ITEM REPORTED ON SCHEDULE K-1 AND THE ACCOMPANYING ATTACHMENTS.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR TRADE OR BUSINESS

Attached is a copy of Schedule K-1, Form 1065 which lists your distributive share of the Partnership's taxable income (loss) for the year ended December 31, 2002. These amounts are to be reported on your 2002 Income Tax Returns.

In connection with the information included on the attached copy of Federal Schedule K-1, please note the following:

Trade or Business

The Partnership has taken the position that it is engaged in the active conduct of a business as a trader in securities. The trading operation is not passive income and is not portfolio income for purposes of the passive activity loss rules (Temp. Reg. Section 1.469-1T(e)(6); Section 1.469-2T(c)(3)(ii)(D)).

Each partner must individually determine whether or not he or she materially participated during the year in the operations of the Partnership, since this affects the presentation and placement of interest expense on your tax return. The Schedule K-1 has been prepared on the basis of a partner who does not materially participate in the operations of the Partnership. Limited partners generally do not materially participate in the trading activities of the Partnership. Accordingly, interest expense reported on line 14a should be reported by an "Individual" taxpayer on Form 4952 line 1 – investment interest expense. Any deductible interest expense should be entered on Schedule E, Part II, column (i). For purposes of determining the investment interest expense limitation, the amounts shown on lines 1 and 7 will affect the computation of investment income.

A partner that materially participates in the trading operation of the Partnership, or a partner that is a "C" corporation, should combine the net ordinary income (loss) reported on line 1 with the interest expense reported on line 14a.

Trader Net Long-Term Capital Gain (Loss)

The supporting schedule for line 7 includes your share of net long-term capital gain (loss). The amount of qualified 5-year gain, if any, included in the net long-term capital gain (loss) is separately stated. Qualified 5-year gain is subject to a special reduced 8% tax rate for individuals reporting a net long-term capital gain. The reduced tax rate of 8% is available only to the extent that the qualified 5-year gain falls within the 15% tax bracket.

Dividends Eligible for Dividend – Received – Deduction (DRD)

The qualifying dividends represent the amount of dividends from less than 20% owned domestic corporations eligible for the dividends received deduction under IRC Section 243(a). The balance of dividends is not eligible for the dividends received deduction.

Unrelated Business Taxable Income (Loss)

If you are a tax-exempt entity and you have gross income from an unrelated trade or business of $1,000 or more, you must file Form 990-T. The law is not entirely clear as to the proper way to determine income (loss) that is attributable to the use of leverage ("debt-financed income"). We have computed UBTI based on our interpretation of the law. Our computation of UBTI has been reflected on line 25 of Schedule K-1.

Guaranteed Payments

Guaranteed payments do not constitute passive income. Guaranteed payments that represent interest on capital constitute investment income for purposes of the investment interest expense limitation.

State & Local Tax Information

If you are required to file a state income tax return, your share of interest income from obligations issued by the U.S. Government or its agencies and your share of expenses to carry such obligations are reported on line 25 of Schedule K-1.

THESE INSTRUCTIONS INVOLVE COMPLEX INCOME TAX MATTERS WHICH OFTEN AFFECT TAXPAYERS DIFFERENTLY DEPENDING UPON THEIR OWN PARTICULAR FACTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES. THEREFORE, YOU SHOULD CONSIDER CONSULTING WITH A PROFESSIONAL TAX ADVISER IF YOU ARE UNCERTAIN ABOUT THE TREATMENT OF ANY ITEM REPORTED ON SCHEDULE K-1 AND THE ACCOMPANYING ATTACHMENTS.
